A Hard Meal To Digest

Is Quickly Digested by the Taking of a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet After It Is Over.

When on the job is hard to digest, for some folks, but with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet it readily is digested by the stomach and digestive apparatus.

Don't hurt your stomach. Give it what it needs at the very moment it needs it. Here is the way a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet acts:

He—"I can eat now and feel O. K. A Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet will digest it."

After a meal, the stomach is full. The food is taken a tablet just after the meal is completed. It is taken into the stomach like food, is mixed with the saliva, allowed moist and partially dissolved. It goes into the stomach and is there mixed with the stomach juices which are composed of acids and alkalies.

A Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet reinforces these juices. It quickly digests the elements which such weakened juices cannot digest.

After a while the stomach passes the food partially digested to the intestines, where it goes through another stage of digestion. Here, as in the stomach, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets strengthen the juices of digestion and complete the work of giving the body the benefit of the meal.

There is nothing harmful in these tablets. Only natural ingredients which the body lacks are supplied. In a short time the blood and digestive juices are given the power they lack. Man can digest any food without injury to the entire health of the body is increased. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold wherever drugs are sold, price 50 cents a box. Anyone wishing a free trial of these tablets please address J. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich., and a small sample package will be mailed free—(Adv.)

HAS A CURE FOR PELLAGRA

Barrie Nichols, Laurel, Miss., writes: "Seems to me if I had not obtained your remedy when I did I would not have lived much longer. I am glad you discovered this wonderful remedy that will cure Pellagra. I began taking Baugh's Pellagra Remedy my weight was 60-odd pounds; now it is 150-odd. I would like to have this published and sent to sufferers of Pellagra."

This is published at her request. If you suffer from Pellagra or know of anyone who suffers from Pellagra, it is your duty to consult the Baugh, who has fought and conquered the dread malady right in the Pellagra Belt of Alabama.

The symptoms—hands red like sunburn, skin peeling off, sore mouth, lips, throat and tongue a flaming red, swollen mucous membranes, indigestion and nausea, either diarrhea or constipation.

There is hope. If you have Pellagra you can be cured by Baugh's Pellagra Remedy. Get a big free book on Pellagra. Address: American Compound, P. O. 202, Jasper, Ala. Remembering money is refunded when you write where the remedy fails to cure—(Adv.)

GERMANS BEAT FOUR BRITISH WARSHIPS OFF THE COAST OF CHILE

GERMANS' RAID ON BRITISH COAST IS CAUSE FOR ALARM

Information between Serbia and Bulgaria has been broken.

Communication given out in Berlin officially today says that the Persian minister at Petrograd has demanded the immediate recall of the Russian forces of occupation in Persia. Russia, for some time past, has maintained permanent garrisons in the northern portion of Persia.

According to the Athens correspondent of the Star, an American warship has arrived at Beirut, Syria, for the protection of the Christian population. The Belgian official communication designating as the "precipitate retreat" of the Germans before the advance of the allies on the Yser river in Belgium was pleasing news, though, though previous developments had given the hope that this soon would be the case.

The advance of the move is the chief topic of discussion. Opinions differ as to the extent of the withdrawal of the Germans, who, in falling back, it was stated, suffered considerable losses.

There is also much speculation as to the destination of the Germans. The Belgian communication merely stated that the day before yesterday the Belgian fact that the allies retained in this section, and the day before yesterday the Belgians would seem to indicate that the Germans had not been driven back as far as was supposed.

General Herbat, the military critic, in his comment on the news did not regard the retreat as a well defined victory for the allies. To him it appeared more like a falling back as the result of exhaustion, and because the Germans had been unable to make any headway in the inundated country. He pointed out that the Germans had been obliged to withdraw to the railroad from Dixmude to Nieuport in consequence of the Ypres.

What appeared more important to General Herbat, however, was the fact that the retreat from the Yser in the direction of Dixmude. This is the part of the Belgian front already much disputed, and the Germans had been obliged to retreat to the Yser.

The retreat in fact is partial, he wrote, but it is none the less significant.

Berlin Wireless Tells of Fighting Against Turkey

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—(By Wireless to Sayville.)—British warships on November 3, had an official announcement issued here today, bombarded the Turkish port of Haifa, which was a landlocked port, and re-embarked after losing four men.

It was a British cruiser, the Good Hope, which was damaged by the Turkish batteries. The ship was at an extreme range and lasted five minutes.

Simultaneously, it is reported, two British cruisers fired six shots at the Turkish shore batteries at Jaffa, in Palestine, but retired under the fire of Turkish artillery.

An announcement given out at Vienna says that the British fleet in the Baltic after holding the Russians in check in the Lyngor, continued its operations in the Baltic.

The situation in Galicia is unchanged. The Austrians have captured large quantities of supplies from the Serbians in the Mawa district, where the enemy retreated in haste.

VETERAN BALLOONIST DIES AT AGE OF 86 YEARS

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—Samuel Lewis King, a veteran balloonist, died at his home in this city yesterday.

Mr. King was 86 years old and made his first ascent in 1851. During his career as an aeronaut he made 48 ascensions and never met with a serious accident. When he was eighty-one he made a six-hour trip in the air with six passengers.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person is troubled with catarrh in some form.

Science has shown that nasal catarrh indicates a weakened condition of the body; that the secretion of the mucous membranes is quickly affected, and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-ford in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a balancing tonic from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it.

One Sent to Bottom, Others Disabled and Chased Into Port—Victors Are But Little Damaged

(By Associated Press.)

VALPARAISO, Chile, Nov. 4.—The victory of the German fleet, under Admiral von Spee, consisting of the armored cruisers Scharnhorst and Goudeau and the light cruisers Nürnberg, Leipzig and Bremen, over the British squadron made up of the cruisers Monmouth, Good Hope and Glasgow and the transport Otranto, commanded by Rear Admiral Craddock, continues the sensation of the hour here.

The British were able to sink or scatter the British squadron with no damage to their own ships and a casualty list of only two wounded, is a subject of wonder.

The Monmouth is known to have been lost with practically all of her crew, as a result of the first battle. The light of the war, the Good Hope was severely damaged and on fire when she escaped under cover of darkness, and it is believed here that she went to the bottom, while the Glasgow and Otranto took refuge in a Chilean port.

TWO BRITISH SUNK

The Scharnhorst, Goudeau and Nürnberg were still in the harbor early today, coaling and provisioning in preparation for steaming away later. It is supposed they will relieve the cruisers Leipzig and Bremen, which have been ordered to Talcahuano, eight miles northwest of Concepcion.

It was the maddest for these British to leave this haven of refuge and it is likely that they will be dismantled and interned unless a superior British and Japanese fleet should make its appearance and go to their relief.

GREAT FIGHT NEEDED

Admiral von Spee, in his official report of the battle which took place Sunday afternoon off the Chilean coast, said that the British action lasted only an hour, being discontinued at midnight when the British were forced to give way.

"The Cold Hope," he says, "was then so badly damaged that she was unable to remain in the water and was followed by a small cruiser and was sunk before she could escape to the harbor."

The German admiral, in noting the escape of the Otranto and the Glasgow, said it was due to their speed and the darkness.

Results of the fight, picked up from informal conversations with German officers, show that the British, owing to the superior range of the guns on the armored cruisers Scharnhorst and Goudeau opened fire when six miles distant.

BRITISH FOUGHT BRAVELY, SAY FOES

As the ships closed in and the range came down to a distance of four miles the British ships were able to reply by that time they were already superior to the German fleet.

The British fought heroically but that their artillery was ineffective against the superior weight of metal which the Germans were able to pour into the battle. One of them, it appears from the official report, was blown through its death blow, as crippled and flames, it tried to escape.

CHENEY'S EXPECTORANT Cures Whooping Cough, Croup

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—American Minister Fletcher, at Santiago, Chile today reported the German naval victory off Coronel, Chile, and the arrival of three German warships at Valparaiso.

The damaged Good Hope is reported as having escaped with the Glasgow and Otranto.

Official news was contained in a cable to the German embassy here today from Mr. Eckert, German minister at Valparaiso.

The message, dated early yesterday, says:

"The German cruisers Scharnhorst, Goudeau and Nürnberg entered Valparaiso today in perfect condition. They had, together with a fourth cruiser, an armored off Coronel on Sunday against four English cruisers. The Monmouth was sunk by shells. The Good Hope was badly damaged and took refuge in the Otranto and Bristol on the coast of Chile. No damage to our ships."

London wires today, reading the naval engagement off the Chilean coast Sunday.

Until the British admiral has spoken the extent of their losses cannot be known. According to German reports the British cruiser Monmouth was sunk, the cruiser Good Hope was damaged and the transport Otranto was disabled.

It is reported that a Japanese-British fleet that has been operating around the islands of the Pacific is rushing south to attack the victorious German.

In the Wake Of the War With Corey

No newspaper, no magazine, in America today is publishing more interesting and startling news than this one by Herbert Corey, the famous magazine writer. They picture the human side of the conflict as no brief, censored cables can do.

Walls of his house and passed between Diederich and his wife, as they sat at dinner. Diederich showed me a fragment of the shell.

"They tell me," said my refugee, "that Sherman walked all the way to the Dutch frontier. Well, I don't blame him. I made that march myself."

WHEN THE GUNS BEGAN TO POUND.

When it was known that the Germans were to bombard—that very day, escaped under cover of darkness, and it is believed here that she went to the bottom, while the Glasgow and Otranto took refuge in a Chilean port.

"We all ran," said my refugees. "For miles the roads leading into Holland were jammed with men and women, old and young, and poor; all walking desperately toward safety. Every foot that could get away from the piers on the Scheidt was loaded to the water's edge with people. Then the shells began to pounce upon the piers. The big, earthquake guns began to pound."

"Those of us who had waited began to flee then," said my friends. "Men and women were in tears. The narrow streets were blocked with carts and mattresses and blankets and the debris of the houses. Men and women fought and for at each other as they tried to force a passage through. The women were knocked down and thrust aside. Sometimes cornered by the shells, they pushed us aside."

An unknown number of thousands spent that night in the open. The German guns seemed not to be throwing shells that way. They feared to smash under roof. The story goes that more than a score of babies were born that night, that real, frightened, homeless multitude—and died. I do not know. My refugee friends could not give color to their stories. They could only tell a little of what they had seen, and that in cold, lifeless words.

"The shells," they all said, "Ah, God, the shells! Each shell seemed to be coming direct for you. No matter if it were a mile away, it seemed to seek right to your heart."

Every member of one group of refugees I saw hated the Germans, of course. But they agreed that the Germans had conducted the bombardment honorably—even kindly—with due regard to the laws of war.

WAS SKELLED.

There was one exception. "They shelled the British hospital," said he. "I saw it."

This man declared that a Taube aeroplane circled and whirled above the hospital until it had been definitely located.

"Then the Taube dropped one of those smoke things down," he said. "I know—the smoke bomb which he fired the artillery the range. Right afterward the shells burst through the roof of the hospital and exploded inside."

The hospital was filled with wounded.

BOY FARMERS OF CALIF. WILL VISIT ATLANTA

Party Will Be Entertained by Boy Scouts While in the City

Twenty-five young farmers from California will arrive in Atlanta Thursday morning at 11 o'clock they will be met by the city, State mountain, the state capital and whatever else of interest that is going to be shown. They are the winners of the recent agricultural contest conducted by the University of California, and their prize is a tour of the United States, which already has taken them through the large cities of the north and west and now has brought them to Dixie.

Their train from Washington reaches the terminal station at 5:45 o'clock in the morning. At 6 o'clock they will be escorted by patrols from all the Boy Scout troops in the city, whom the University of California has appointed as official entertainers of the visitors.

First the boys, who are charge of Fred R. H. Crocker, of the University of California, will be taken to the state capital and shown the geological exhibits. At 10 o'clock they will board a car for Stone Mountain. Here they will be shown the precipitous north side, the granite and will be taken to the top for a picnic dinner.

The leave at 5:20 o'clock in the afternoon for New Orleans.

YOUNG BOY, KICKED BY SHOWMAN, MAY NOT LIVE
Man Accused of Brutal Assault
Held in Jail Without Bond

Edward Kent, aged 13 years, son of Mrs. J. E. Kent, of 175 Whitehall street, in a precarious condition at Grady hospital, having been kicked in the kidneys at the Wild West show Tuesday night, and John Schmidt, an employee of the show, who claims to be a pole, held at police station without bond pending the outcome of the boy's injuries.

It appears that the boy got in the way of the circus men, and one of them, who was a showman, kicked him. He was moved into a hospital, where he was examined, where examination disclosed that his kidneys were ruptured and immediately he was placed on the operating table. In the meantime he gave a description of the man who kicked him.

About midnight Officers Carter and Homan found Schmidt, who tallied with the boy's description, and arrested him and took him to the hospital for identification. The boy identified him positively. Schmidt was then taken to police station and his bond fixed at $100 Wednesday morning, when it was learned from the hospital that the boy might live, this amount was recalled and Schmidt is now held without bond.

Schmidt denies any knowledge of connection with the assault upon the boy.

JAPANESE PIN CUSHION FREE
Given Away With 10 Cent
Purchase of Tuxedo
Tobacco

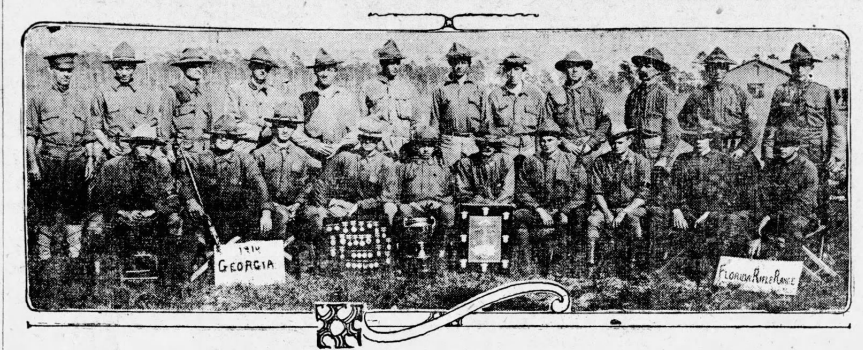

Every lady in the town ought to be sure, on this pin cushion offer by the American Tobacco Company. "Pin cushion" the cushions are the newest novelty seen here in this line. They are shaped to represent cunning little Japanese tea pots, with a handle by which the cushion can be hung up against the wall in a convenient place. In addition, from the smelter's point of view, when he buys a tin of Tuxedo he is getting the full worth of his dime in the most popular and delightful smoking tobacco on the market. Every smoke knows "Tuxedo Process."

Tuxedo is made from the highest grade Kentucky Burley, treated by the original Tuxedo Process so that it absolutely smokes like the real thing. This fragrant tobacco is equally good for pipe or cigarette.

Inasmuch as the dealer's supply of these clever pin cushions is limited, it is advisable for you to make your Tuxedo purchase as soon as you see the sign in the dealer's window. Only one cushion to each purchaser of a ten cent tin of Tuxedo. (Advt.)

WRITES OUT HIS WILL; THEN COMMITS SUICIDE

J. H. Cummings Leaves Possessions to His Nephew Instead of His Wife

After carefully typewriting his last will and testament, in which he leaves his possessions to his nephew, Hugh Norton, and not to his wife, and requests that his body be cremated and interred in "Little Rabbit's Grave," J. H. Cummings, sexton of Hollywood cemetery, shot himself in the mouth at his room, 92 West Harris street, Tuesday night, dying almost instantly.

According to those at the house, no one heard the shot fired. Miss Addie Smith, the landlady, went to Cummings' room about 8:30 o'clock to tell him supper was ready. She saw she had a premonition something was wrong as she stepped outside his door, so she called his name, George Norton, and together they entered the room, to find Cummings lying on his bed, face to the wall, a .22-caliber pistol clenched in his right hand. He had been dead about thirty minutes.

Everything in the room had been set in order and the typewriter will appear in full view on the table. It was dated Nov. 2, 1914, and read as follows:

"To Whom It May Concern: This being my last will, I bequeath all of my contents to my nephew, Hugh Norton, contained in said room. Money, insurance, can be found in my trunk in the small box. Out of this insurance my wife is to pay the funeral and I, J. H. Cummings, to be paid over to Mrs. C. E. Cummings. My body to be cremated at Cincinnati, O., the rings to go to Hugh Norton, and placed in just an ordinary casket. My watch to go to Hugh Norton. All of my keys and combinations you will find on the mantel in said room. All I have personally I want to go to W. H. Jordan, including postal and photographic, save few in the basement and coal oil stove. You will find a few private papers in the desk, which does not amount to very much. My body is to be taken to Little Rabbit's Grave, and interred in Little Rabbit's Grave. Given under my hand the 2d day of November, 1914.—J. H. Cummings."

Friends and relatives of Cummings say he had brooded for some time over his separation from his wife. He resided at Hollywood cemetery and had lived on Harris street for about two years.

The body is at H. M. Patterson's chapel on Inman street, which will be held some time Wednesday.

MORE SINGERS NEEDED FOR SACRED CONCERT
Chorus of 200 Voices Will Feature the Program at Tabernacle Dec. 3

Preparations for a sacred concert, the feature of which will be a chorus of 200 or more voices, are being made by the Atlanta Young People's union.

The concert will be held on December 3, at the Baptist Tabernacle, and a leading New York concert singer will have a prominent part in the program.

J. Austin Brooks, secretary, states that the chorus has already begun practice and it meets on Thursday evenings at the Capitol Avenue Baptist church, and on Friday evenings at the Tabernacle.

At present the chorus numbers only 100 voices, but Mr. Brooks states that it is gradually being recruited up to the desired number, and he urges all singers, who are willing to take part in the work, to come either to the Capitol Avenue church on Thursday night, or to the Tabernacle on Friday.

The rehearsals are conducted at 8 o'clock under the direction of Prof. A. C. Boatman.

BANK STUDENTS WILL GIVE SMOKER THURSDAY
Will Complete Details of Course of Study for Winter Season

The Atlanta Students of the American Institute of Banking will hold a smoker Thursday night at the chamber of commerce, when arrangements will be completed for a course in "Banking and Finance," to run through the coming season.

Seven young Atlantians have successfully passed recent examinations by the institute. These are T. W. Towns, W. V. Crowley, Julian Clayton, W. Spass, W. R. Beck and F. C. Schwab.

Robert S. Parker, of the law firm of Brown & Randolph, Parker & Schwab, conducted the class.

Atlanta has over 100 members of the American Institute of Banking, which has grown from a handful of members in 1902 to 1,100 throughout the last year in 1914. The object of the institute is to train bank clerks for more important positions.

ASKS GEORGIA TO SEND FOOD STUFF TO BELGIANS
Governor John M. Slaton received a telegram Tuesday from Herbert Hoover, chairman of the Belgian relief commission in London, asking the governor's influence towards getting the people of Georgia to furnish one or more shipments of foodstuffs for destitute Belgians.

Mr. Hoover stated that he would arrange for the shipment of food from some American port if Georgia should donate the food. The governor suggested that Governor Slaton appoint a committee to take charge of the matter. The governor has not yet taken action on the request.

WALLET WITH $52 STOLEN ON STREET CAR
A pocketbook containing $52 in cash and $45 in checks was stolen late Tuesday afternoon from the pocket of the Rev. J. C. Hunt, pastor of the Catholic chapel church, near Decatur, as he was en route home on a North Decatur car.

Mr. Hunt declares he had no idea when the purse was stolen. He is certain that it was safely in his pocket when he boarded the trolley, and it was missing when he reached Decatur.

TWO FIRES EARLY ON WEDNESDAY; LOSS $1,500
Two fires early Wednesday caused $1,500 damage to a soda water stand and a shoe shop.

The first fire was discovered at 12:15 o'clock at Ben Chisholm's shoe stand at 36 Central avenue. The damage there is estimated at $1,000.

Shortly after 1 o'clock a blaze in Smith's shoe shop, 142 North Boulevard, was discovered. The shoe frame building, was completely destroyed before the arrival of the fire department.

JOURNAL COTTON WILL BE MADE INTO BANDAGES

Bale Goes to France to Dress Wounds of the Injured

In response to a plea in the name of the people of France, from Dr. P. E. May, secretary of the local committee for Belgium relief, The Journal has donated one of its bales of cotton which it bought at 10 cents a pound, for the making of bandages for wounded soldiers of that country.

This is but one of a number of bales that were bought and have been turned over to Dr. May by the purchasers. Dr. May will in turn send the lint cotton to Limoges, France, where a sterilizing plant is converting it into pads and bandages for the wounded, regardless of their nationality.

"France will not forget the aid of the people of Georgia," says Dr. May. "It will be known there through the press, and it will be appreciated. When Atlanta erects her art museum, Limoges will respond to your kindness with suitable gifts. We are thankful now, and we will not forget."

JURORS DISAGREE IN CASE OF ALLEGED BOY BURGLAR
Mistrial After Long Debate Over Charges Against William Specht

After a superior court jury had been out for seven hours, a mistrial was declared Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the case of William Specht, seventeen years old, charged with burglarizing a furnishing store at 6 Peachtree street. Albert Kemper, attorney, defended Specht.

Charles Ellis, a companion of Specht's, who is to be tried on the same burglary charge, sought from Solicitor Dorsey's office the release of her son, who is in jail. Specht is only seventeen years old.

Mrs. Ellis is said to be utterly destitute, deprived of her home, her employment, and now, of Charlie, formerly her main means of support.

Harry Sharron, found by Atlanta detectives in Columbus, is also charged with the same burglary. Sharron, it is understood, is being held in Columbus on another charge at present.

It happened that Staten took his money home Tuesday night, otherwise he would have been a loser by several hundred dollars. Staten does not suspect anyone employed in the place.

MISS EVA BOOTH WILL SPEAK AT GRAND SUNDAY
Miss Eva Booth, daughter of the late General William Booth, world-famous leader of the Salvation army, will lecture Sunday night at the Grand theater on "My Father."

This lecture has been given by her many times in both England and America.

Many prominent Atlantians will be present Sunday night. Admission is free.

REPUBLICAN LANDSLIDE IN PENNSYLVANIA GROWS

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—The Republican plurality in Pennsylvania for all state candidates continued to increase today as additional returns were received.

With 50 per cent of the state heard from the plurality of United States Senator Penrose over A. Mitchell Palmer, his Democratic opponent, stood at 130,916 with indications that it will come close to 200,000, if not exceed those figures.

Gifford Pinchot, Progressive, was about 2,000 behind Palmer. Penrose's plurality in Philadelphia alone was 111,888.

The Republicans also elected their candidate for lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs and their four nominees for congressmen at large.

Philadelphia's congressional delegation of six will be solidly Republican, the two Democratic members from the city going down to defeat. From returns at hand the Republicans also won three congressional seats outside of Philadelphia held by Democrats and one held by Progressives.

The Republicans also increased their majorities in the state senate and house or representatives principally at the expense of the Progressives.

form the plurality of United States Senator Penrose over A. Mitchell Palmer, his Democratic opponent, stood at 130,916 with indications that it will come close to 200,000, if not exceed those figures.

Gifford Pinchot, Progressive, was about 2,000 behind Palmer. Penrose's plurality in Philadelphia alone was 111,888.

The Republicans also elected their candidate for lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs and their four nominees for congressmen at large.

Philadelphia's congressional delegation of six will be solidly Republican, the two Democratic members from the city going down to defeat. From returns at hand the Republicans also won three congressional seats outside of Philadelphia held by Democrats and one held by Progressives.

The Republicans also increased their majorities in the state senate and house or representatives principally at the expense of the Progressives.

GERMAN SHIPS RAID ENGLISH COAST AND SINK THREE VESSELS

Shells From Kaiser's Craft Fall Within Mile of British Beach—Many Sailors Lost in Fight

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Telegraphing from Yarmouth regarding the raid made by German squadron in the North sea Tuesday, the correspondent of the Times says:

The whole of the crew of submarine No. 1, which was sunk by a mine dropped by a German cruiser, were lost except two officers and two men. Four men were rescued from the drifted fragments, which was also sunk, but six of her men were drowned. The mine drifted for hours before it struck by a mine about the same time as the others and sank. Only one member of her crew was saved before she was drowned.

The fight was so close to the shore that the shells dropped within a mile of the beach, one exploding within a few hundred yards of the naval air station on the south side of Yarmouth.

It is believed here that the German squadron intended to bombard the coast.

The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Lowestoft gives the story of a member of the crew of the British cruiser Halcyon, which engaged the German vessels. The sailor said:

"We left Yarmouth at 1 o'clock in the morning and when about ten miles out we met the German ships. We challenged them, but supposed that they were British, as we did not expect to find the Germans so near the coast."

The only reply was a shot, and soon the shells were raining around us, the Germans firing as rapidly as possible. The shot wrecked the wheel house, seriously injuring the helmsman, and another pierced the funnel. We were hit about eight times, and considering that we were covered with spray and going at a good rate the gunnery of the Germans was real good. Our wireless was carried away by their second shot."

"Just before they cleared off one of our destroyers came up and put up a screen of smoke from her funnels. The Germans had tried for 15 minutes to sink us, but failed, owing to the captain's splendid seamanship."

TURPENTINE OPERATORS MEETING AT WAYCROSS

WAYCROSS, Ga., Nov. 4.—Nearly 200 turpentine operators from south Georgia are meeting in Waycross today for the purpose of devising plans to aid the turpentine industry. It is proposed to use a central selling agency so that the market will be steadily improved. After sessions of Monday, P. M., who is chairman of the committee in charge of the plans for the central agency, is chairman of the meeting, with Carey M. Wheat, of Waycross, secretary. It is expected that an organization will be perfected to use the central agency and to cut the producers.

OFFICIALS ARRIVING FOR ROAD CONGRESS

Secretary and Business Manager Are Here, and President Will Arrive Thursday

Two officials of the American Road congress which meets in Atlanta next week have arrived in the city and more will arrive Thursday morning.

The officials here are Charles P. Light, business manager of the congress, who is supervising the arrangement of the exhibits and I. S. Pennybacker, executive secretary of the congress, who is looking after all details of the program exclusive of the exhibits.

The officials who arrive Thursday are Austin B. Fletcher, the highway engineer of California and president of the congress, L. W. Page, of Washington, D. C., president of the American Highway association, under whose auspices, together with the American Automobile association and the County Commissioners' association of Georgia, the congress is to be held; and Mrs. Abbie Scott, of Washington, D. C., president of the Women's Auxiliary of the congress.

Fred J. Paxon, chairman of the reception committee, will meet Mr. Fletcher at the Terminal station and take him to the Georgia Terrace, where he will be quartered during the congress.

W. T. W. Wood, county commissioner of Fulton county and chairman of the local executive committee, will meet Mr. Page and take him to his hotel.

Mrs. John M. Slaton, chairman of the women's reception committee, will meet Mrs. Baker and take her to the Ansley hotel, where the Women's Auxiliary will have its headquarters and hold its sessions.

The congress will open next Monday and run through the week. Upwards of 3,500 delegates will attend, among them being county commissioners, highway engineers, road building experts, government officials and several governors.

The sessions will be held in Taft hall at the auditorium.

At a meeting of the local executive committee Tuesday afternoon it was decided to ask the business houses and hotels to decorate for the congress, with American flags predominate.

Wiley West, chairman of the automobile committee, will provide each country car with a small American flag as an identification mark, and the accredited delegates will be invited to stop these cars wherever they find them and make use of the cars just as the visiting drivers did in the shuttle convention. Chairman West needs more cars, however, and citizens who are willing to loan cars are requested to communicate with Chairman West at Ivy 1134 or with Secretary Fred Brown at the convention bureau, at Ivy 7124.

Mayor James G. Woodward has called a special meeting of the general council Thursday afternoon to make plans for the entertainment of the mayors and other officials who will attend the congress.

REV. R. A. BROWN HEADS GEORGIA PRESBYTERIANS

Rev. J. S. Herndon, of La-Grange Named Secretary of Synod at Moultrie

MOULTRIE, Ga., Nov. 4.—The Georgia synod, which convened with the Presbyterian church here last night, brought together a large body of churchmen. Every presbytery in the state was well represented and practically every church has representation. The synod opened with a spirited election of officers that resulted in the naming of Rev. R. A. Brown, of Waycross, as moderator and Rev. J. O. Herndon, of LaGrange, as secretary.

The retiring moderator, Dr. A. A. Little, of Atlanta, preached the opening sermon. At 11 o'clock today Dr. J. S. Lyons, of Atlanta, preached the commission sermon. The home mission report will be made this evening by Rev. J. C. Shiloh.

The synod will be in session through Friday.

INSURANCE COMPANY WILL LEND $75,000 ON Y. M. C. A.

Through Attorneys Shepard Bryan and Grover Middlebrooks the New York life insurance company has completed arrangements for making a loan of $75,000 on the new Y. M. C. A. building.

The loan is to run for ten years, paying 5.12 per cent interest. This is one of the largest loans on Atlanta realty announced recently.

MAJOR MICHAEL LYNCH DIED ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Was One of City's Best Known Veterans—Funeral Set for Thursday

Major Michael Lynch, one of Atlanta's oldest and most honored veterans, passed away Tuesday night at his home, 173 Woodward avenue. He was seventy-nine years of age.

For years Major Lynch had been a resident of Atlanta. He fought with the famous Twenty-first Georgia during the war, serving with such distinction that he was promoted before the war to a major.

He was a leading member of Atlanta veterans, and will be sadly missed by his comrades who knew him well both in time of peace and war. At his own request, he will be buried in the Confederate lot at West View cemetery.

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the Church of the Immaculate Conception, pallbearers. Major Lynch is survived by his daughters, Miss Maude Lynch and Mrs. J. E. Selma, both of Atlanta.

REV. R. A. WEBB TO LECTURE IN ATLANTA

The Rev. R. A. Webb, D.D., LL.D., of Louisville, Ky., will arrive in Atlanta Sunday to deliver a series of lectures at the Central Presbyterian church. The lectures will start Sunday night and continue each night during the week. "Religion and Life" will be Dr. Webb's subject.

Dr. Webb has been invited to Atlanta by the Presbyterian ministers of the city. All Presbyterian churches will unite to make these meetings a success.

Webb is a relative of "Gawwies," the "Grand Old Man of Tennessee," and is declared to be an able speaker.

TWINE FIRM CALLS ON FRIENDS TO USE COTTON

D. P. Winne Company Tells Customers They Can Be of Help to South

The D. P. Winne company, Inc., of New York, dealers in twines of every description, has issued a very interesting circular to thousands of buyers throughout the country strongly advocating the use of a bale of cotton to help the south.

"We urge all our friends and customers to use a bale—and as many as possible—of cotton," says the circular. "At this time when cotton is selling at a lower price than for some years and when competing fibers in our line are selling at relatively high prices, an unusual opportunity exists to use cotton goods of all kinds. We know that cotton is economical to use for many purposes, and in the present crisis in the cotton trade we earnestly recommend to all in the trade that they use a bale of cotton in the form of yard, thread, twine, rope, clothes lines, bags, baling, sheeting, or any other that they can substitute for competing goods."

When you consume a bale of cotton you aid the cotton producer, the entire southland, the manufacturer, the small worker, and every one who is interested in the cotton trade.

By the Presbyterian ministers of the city. All Presbyterian churches will unite to make these meetings a success.

Webb is a relative of "Gawwies," the "Grand Old Man of Tennessee," and is declared to be an able speaker.

OFFICERS OF LAKEWOOD LODGE ARE INSTALLED

New Order Gives Fulton County Twenty-Two Masonic Orders

With impressive public ceremonies in the Lakewood Heights Methodist church, a new Masonic lodge, Lakewood lodge No. 46, was installed Tuesday night.

Thomas Jeffries, past grand master of Georgia, presided at the installation. The church was crowded with friends and relatives of the members of the new lodge, and after the ceremonies, a big lawn. Mr. Jeffries delivered an interesting address after the officers had been installed.

These officers are William Greenway, worshipful master; C. R. Reno, senior warden; P. J. Wray, junior warden; William Braswell, secretary.

Lakewood lodge is the twenty-second Masonic lodge in Fulton county. Its headquarters will be in Normal hall, at Lakewood Heights.

NEW FISSURE AUGMENTS ERUPTION OF VESUVIUS

(By Associated Press.) NAPLES, via Rome, Nov. 4.—The eruption of Mount Vesuvius has been augmented because of the opening of a new fissure in the bottom of the old crater.

From this new opening an extraordinary amount of smoke and a great quantity of ashes is being emitted. This is blown by the wind toward the sea.

The sea is now being covered by the ash and the island of Capri, twenty miles south of Naples, which appears as if in a mist.

South Carolina Farmer May Be Atlanta's Biggest Policeman Soon

C. E. Martin, who has been toying hay down on the old farm in South Carolina, wants to toss a ball around Atlanta's streets in the uniform of a cop. He has written all about it to Chief of Police Beavers, and the chief has sent him an application blank.

If Martin does get on the force he will be the biggest policeman that ever officiated at a traffic tangle. He writes from Seneca, Rural Free Delivery No. 5, that he stands six feet eight inches in his wool socks and has a ring-side weight of 220 pounds.

However, that's a small matter to Martin. "Everybody calls me a whopper," reads his letter, "but I don't think I'm so large."

"I've been on the farm for twenty-five years," he continues, "but I want a little city life now. How about a job, chief?"

S. AFRICA INSURGENTS NOW NUMBER 10,000

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—(By Wireless.) According to official information given out in Berlin today, certain firms in America have been informed from South Africa that the insurgents in the union of South Africa number 10,000 men.

They have in their possession quick fuses and machine guns. The English war supplies in the cape colony are described as insufficient.

NEW BOND ISSUE BY ELECTRIC CO. PLANNED

Asks Authority of R. R. Commission to Issue $160,000 in Bonds

A petition for authority to issue $160,000 in bonds has been filed with the state railroad commission by the Georgia Railway and Electric company, of Atlanta. The commission will hear arguments for and against this petition on November 13.

The bonds to be issued are described as "refunding and improvement mortgage, forty-year 5 per cent, sinking fund, gold coupon bonds." The proceeds derived from the sale of these bonds, according to the company's petition, are to be used to cover expenditures made by the company during the period between January 1, 1914, and June 30, 1914, for additions and extensions to its properties which are chargeable to its capital account. More than $300,000 was expended by the company for improvements in the period named.

JAMES F. LYNCH FILES BANKRUPTCY PETITIONS

James F. Lynch, Inc., and James F. Lynch individually, filed voluntary bankruptcy petitions in the federal court on Wednesday. His liabilities incorporated are $46,078.89 and his assets $48,719.

YOU'RE BILIOUS AND COSTIVE!—CASCARETS

To-night! Clean your bowels and End Headaches, Colds, Sour Stomach.

Get a 10-cent box now. Furred Tongue, Bad Colds, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and un-savouring. A Cascaret to-night will give you constipated bowels, a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your drugist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.—(Adv.)

News, News Of Such Importance as Has Not Been Told This Season

260 Suits of Rare Beauty in a Sale

In a sale such as, it seems, only Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. have the temerity to launch.

You have been hearing much of late about special purchases and exceptional values made possible by these purchases—here is a different kind of a sale, and because it is different it is full to overflow with savings for the first two hundred sixty women who arrive tomorrow morning.

There is not a Special Purchase Suit in the entire lot, but every Suit included is from our own stocks, that we chose with our best ability from the finest tailors America boasts.

So the prices you see below are those that meant fair value for such suits, prices that these suits bore in this well regulated stock up to the time this advertisement was printed.

Why such a sale? Because we would! We are doing things now that we have always done months later. And since time is money in merchandising this is the most valuable thing to you, the woman who has a suit to buy, that Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose has ever done.

Read on

At $18.50 Suits That Were $25, $30 and $33.50

At $25 Suits That Were $35, $40 to $48.50

At $39.50 Suits That Were $58.50, $65 to $78

Let Us Make It Clear This Sale Brings But 260 Suits

Which by no means measures our entire stock, only a portion. But we could not offer Better Fabrics, Finer Workmanship, More Graceful Styles.

Styles

Coats are variously 36 to 45-inch lengths. The majority average 42 inches long. Redingotes, in one adaptation after another, cutaway coats in many variations, military effects, trimmed with braids, some with furs, plain.

Skirts, plaited, tunics, plain lines with band and button trimmings. All sizes from misses to 44-inch bust

Fabrics

Broadcloths, the very cream of domestic and imported qualities; gabardines, the favored, long wearing fabric; serges, fine weave and the heavier storm serges; diagonal novel effects of the weavers' art; ripple cloths, soft, rich, beautiful.

A woman would not seek other materials than those represented here were she unmindful of the saving.

Colors

Black, midnight blue, medium and dark navy; the greens from the rich Russian shade to the darkest; browns, through the list including the very popular tete de negre; prune.

Shades every woman knows, those that we selected because they make up the fashionable color card of the season.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET SWEEPS STATE WITH ALL 10 COUNTIES

Despite Small Vote Cast All
Progressive Candidates Are Snowed Under by Overwhelming Majority

True to expectations Senator Hoke Smith and Congressman Thomas W. Hardwick, Georgia's Democratic nominees for the United States senate, triumphed by overwhelming majorities in yesterday's election over their Progressive opponents, C. W. McClure and G. H. Hatcher. Although the size of the vote was somewhat disappointing, it was larger than that usually polled in the county at general elections.

Friendship majorities were also received by Congressman William Schley against Democratic nominee for congress from the Fifth district, over Roger H. Hatcher, his Progressive opponent, and also was true of the Democratic nominees for the legislature from Fulton county, Judge Spencer R. Atkinson, Walter P. Andrews and R. B. Blackman who were opposed by John T. Pugh, F. J. Pugh and W. A. Hart, the Progressive candidates.

No other candidates were put out by the Progressives.

All but the proposed constitutional amendments appear to have carried, that providing for four-year terms for county officials, however, received the smallest majority.

Four of these amendments create new counties—Barrow, with Wilkes as the county seat, Bacon with Alma as the county seat, Candler with Metter as the county seat, and Evans with Clayton as the county seat.

The addition of these four new counties gives Georgia 152 counties instead of 148 as heretofore.

Other amendments to the state's constitution provide for representation in the legislature of the new counties, the legislative authority to abolish the office of county treasurer, permit Fulton county to increase the compensation of the judge of the Fifth circuit court, permits the city of Savannah to abolish justice courts, and also the terms of members of the general assembly until the convening of the succeeding general assembly.

Counties received by the Democrats in yesterday's morning indicate that the Progressive candidates obtained majorities in sixteen counties, including Appling, Carroll, Colquitt, Coweta, Emanuel, Glynn, Gordon, Harlow, Jackson, Madison, McIntosh, Oglethorpe, Wilkes, Wilcox, and Yamacraw. Building, Screven, Turner and Wilcox counties were also won by the Democrats. Final returns may add three or four counties to this list and some of the unreported may have been lost to the Democratic cause.

Several of the counties which went to the Democrats had been won by the Democrats in previous years and have been considered as strongly Democratic. In these the Progressives have been in the majority.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTIES.
Reports have not been received from the following counties to the Democratic nominees by a majority: Baldwin, Burke, Chatham, Clinch, Coffee, Dodge, Glynn, Grady, Habersham, Hall, Harris, Henry, Jasper, Jeff Davis, Jones, Laurens, Lincoln, Lowndes, McIntosh, Newton, Paulk, Pickens, Richland, Saluda, Spalding, Stephens, Sumter, Tallapoosa, Thomas, Tift, Town Union, Walker, Walton, Ware, Warren, Washington, Wilkes, Wilcox, and Yamacraw.

ATLANTA VOTE.
In the city of Atlanta the total vote was about 2,000, divided as follows: Smith, 1,004; McClure, 97; Hardwick, 287; Hatcher, 168; Howard, 2,615; De-ward, 396; Andrews, 2,653; Atkinson, 2,744; Blackman, 2,612; Pugh, 384; Pugh, 394. The Democrats carried every ward.

PROF. A. B. PIKE IS NAMED
TO SUCCEED PROF. PARK

Dairy Expert From Virginia
Becomes Husbandman for Georgia at Athens

ATHENS, Ga., Nov. 4.—Prof. A. B. Pike has been chosen as the successor of the late Prof. J. W. Hart as dairy husbandman for Georgia, working under a new agreement between the Georgia State College of Agriculture and the dairy division of the bureau of animal industry of the United States department of agriculture.

Professor Pike and J. A. McClain, in charge of the southern field for the department, were in conference Tuesday relative to the work. Professor McClain, who has been in charge of the dairy division in the state of Virginia, and therefore well acquainted with dairy conditions in the south, is a graduate of the degree of bachelor of science conferred in 1907.

Professor Pike will spend much of his time visiting farmers and assisting them in getting started in dairying. He has met problems that they have already encountered in dairy work. He will emphasize in his work how to feed, how to breed and breed dairy animals, how to improve the quality of dairy products, and to some extent, how to market them.

In this work he is assisted by Professor Howell, who recently came to Georgia from Michigan. They are carrying a large field of labor. Rapid progress in dairy interest has been made in Georgia in recent years.

The services of Professor Hart were made up of the college which could not meet, but the college and the university at Washington were prepared to present the work on dairy science than ever.

Professor Pike says that he believes now is the opportune time for the farmers of Georgia to take up dairying. He is expected to see great advancement made under the direction of Professor Pike and Howell.

GEORGIA'S NEW CONGRESSMEN

They are the only new members of the Georgia delegation. Congressman Wise succeeds Judge Charles L. Bartlett as representative of the Sixth district, and Congressman Vinson succeeds Congressman Thomas W. Hardwick as representative of the Tenth district.

PROHIBITION INITIATIVE BEATEN IN CALIFORNIA

Proposed General Eight-Hour
Law Also Voted Down

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The chief uncertainty that remains to be cleared up from yesterday's election in California is the outcome of the race for United States senator. Fragmentary returns from all parts of the state early today showed that Representative Joseph R. Knowland, Republican, and James H. Chandler, Democrat, were running close together. Francis J. Vener, Progressive, was lagging far behind.

Supporters of Governor Hiram W. Johnson, Progressive, are claiming that his victory for reelection over John B. Fredericks, Republican, and John T. Curtin, Democrat, would approximate 100,000. The landslide for the head of the ticket has been shared by John M. Ballew, president of the state D. D. railroad commission and Progressive candidate for lieutenant governor.

A drastic prohibition initiative measure and a proposed general eight-hour law were decisively beaten. Julius Kahn and Charles F. Curry, Republicans, were elected to congress, also John I. Nolan, Progressive. Results in the other congressional contests were in doubt.

Partial Returns Show Victory For Prohibition in Oregon

(By Associated Press.)
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 4.—Returns from 249 precincts out of 1,167 in Oregon, early today being heard from, gave for governor:

Gill, Progressive, 521; Smith, Democrat, 571; U'len, Independent, 269; Whybennet, Republican, 1,009.

Prohibition—For 5,417; against, 4,177.

Senator's Race in Doubt

(By Associated Press.)
DENVER, Colo., Nov. 4.—George A. Carlson, Republican, maintained his lead in the race for governor. Thomas M. Patterson, Democrat, at 10 o'clock 328 precincts in 29 counties, including 105 in Denver, gave Carlson 44,728; Patterson, 24,829.

One hundred and thirty-six precincts, including 25 in Denver, gave Senator Work, Republican, 10,182; Thomas, Democrat, 7,517.

Three hundred and thirty-two precincts give: Dry, 39,194; wet, 24,796.

CLAY COUNTY HAS CORN CLUB CONTEST

PORT GAINES, Ga., Nov. 4.—Clay county has the most successful corn club contest in the history of the county. Sixty-three per cent of the boys that entered finished and brought in their reports. Owing to the severe drought that visited this section when the corn was at a critical stage, there were no reports on the yield.

However, the interest shown by the boys and their parents more than made up for the shortage in grain.

Sixty-four bushels was the highest yield, three boys tying for first place, which was finally decided by the score on reports, the largest net profit and the largest ear exhibit. The judges pronounced the corn to be as good as any ever seen by them at a corn club contest.

Prizes were awarded to the boys making as their prize, enough Crimmins corn seed to sow their acre. The crop will be turned under in the spring, and the land planted in corn. A larger yield will be shown after a larger yield for another year.

HOW TO HEAL SKIN TROUBLES

A Baltimore doctor suggests this simple, but reliable, inexpensive home treatment for people suffering with eczema, ringworm, rashes, and similar itching skin diseases. Get a jar of resitol ointment and a cake of resitol soap. These will not cost a bit more than seventy-five cents. With the resitol soap and warm water bath, wash the first treatment thoroughly, until they are free from crusts and the skin is softened. Dry gently, and rub on a thin layer of the resitol ointment, and cover with a light bandage. This should be done twice a day. Usually the distressing itching and burning soon with the first treatment, and the skin soon becomes clear and healthy again.

Free samples of resitol ointment and resitol soap, write Dept. 34-R, Resitol, Baltimore, Md.—(ADV.)

ELECTION NO REBUKE TO WILSON, DECLARES CLARK

Just One of Many Things That Could Happen During War, He Says

(By Associated Press.)
BOWLING GREEN, Mo., Nov. 4.—Champ Clark, speaker of the national house of representatives, commenting this morning on the Republican victories in a majority of the states in which elections were held yesterday, said the vote was not a rebuke to the Wilson administration but just one more thing that could happen during these days of European war.

"The result at the polls throughout the country," said the speaker, "was a great surprise to me. The defeat of a great number of Democratic congressmen is not a rebuke to the policies of President Wilson. No; it is just a natural occurrence, one that might happen during these days of general mixup. The European war may have had something to do with it."

When told that Democratic majority in the house was reduced by a big margin, the speaker, who was re-elected by about 6,000 plurality, said that he felt certain that when the result had been decided definitely the Democratic party still would have a safe working majority.

"The renitence of the Republican and Progressive forces in many districts, and the inability of Democratic legislators because of the long session of congress to properly canvass their districts, naturally permitted the voters to drift back to old party lines, and the Republican victories are the result," he added.

ENGLAND HAS SOMETHING TO HIDE, SAYS AMERICAN

Kick Made Against Refusal to Let the U. S. Attaches
Watch the Military

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Nov. 4.—The Times today prints prominently a letter signed by an American, complaining because the British military and naval authorities stubbornly refuse any facilities to American attaches for observing the British organization preparations and the German government and seems to suggest that Great Britain has something to conceal.

The banning of British American observers is in striking contrast to the extraordinary facilities accorded by the German government and seems to suggest that Great Britain has something to conceal.

CONDITIONS QUIET IN ARKANSAS STRIKE ZONE

(By Associated Press.)
FORT SMITH, Ark., Nov. 4.—News of Secretary Garrison's order detailing four troops of cavalry from Fort Sheridan, Ill., to the Hartford Valley of Arkansas to maintain order in the strike zone spread rapidly through the mining district today but caused little comment among the miners.

Quiet continued today in the valley.

Interest centered in the gathering of the special federal grand jury, which convened in Fort Smith today to investigate the strike conditions. Thirty witnesses were ready to be called when Judge Frank Youmans opened court.
